|------------------------------|------------------|

The Department of Human Services requires a parent or legal guardian to sign a parental authorization to allow any minor younger than 18 years of age to receive non-emergency medical transportation services to medical appointments without being accompanied by a parent or legal guardian.

The RideConnect transportation scheduler must receive the signed parental authorization before scheduling any transportation for a minor traveling without a parent or legal guardian. The signed authorization is valid for 12 months from the date of authorization.

Return the signed parental authorization to South Country Health Alliance, Attn: RideConnect Transportation, 6380 W. Frontage Road, Medford, MN 55049

Contact the following with any concerns or questions: South Country Health Alliance Member Services toll-free at 1-866-567-7242 (TTY 1-800-627-3529 or 711).

I authorize RideConnect transportation to schedule non-emergency medical transportation for my minor dependent who is younger than 18 years old. I also authorize transportation for my minor dependent to and from medical appointments. I understand that this authorization allows a non-emergency transportation provider to transport my minor dependent to and from South Country Health Alliance approved appointments without being accompanied by a parent or legal guardian.

By signing below, I indicate I have read and understand this parental authorization.

I have also included names of people who may receive my child when dropped off in my absence (use an additional sheet of paper, if needed). The parental authorization is valid for 12 months from the date of authorization.

Print Name (Parent/Guardian)

Signature (Parent/Guardian)

Date of Authorization

Emergency Contact Name and Phone Number

Note: It is very important that you provide an emergency contact. If you choose not to provide an emergency contact and we are not able to contact a parent or guardian for your child in an emergency, we will need to leave your child in the custody of the nearest authority.
