

$50 Be Rewarded™ Infant Well-care Visits (C&TC exams)

Well-care visits, also known as Child & Teen Checkups (C&TC exams), are important for infants because they help keep your child healthy right from the very start.

Well-care visits

These visits are more thorough than a regular health care provider visit or exam when your child is sick. These visits are also a great time for parents to get information about good health for their kids and to ask questions.
